About The Bishop

Bishop Wayne Malcolm is considered to be a master of motivation and a leading performance coach. With over 25 years of ministry on four continents, Wayne has addressed a variety of groups, associations and organisations in the public, private and voluntary sectors. His passion for personal development together with his skillful and humorous presentations has earned him the reputation of being one of the best in the business.

Wayne is an author with 25 titles under his belt and the producer of numerous audio-learning programs. In 2013 Bishop Wayne consolidated his various ministry initiatives under a new umbrella: The International Christ Ambassadors Network (ICAN). The organisation is composed of a church network, a leadership school and a global network of leaders.

ICAN seeks to establish a credible Christian presence in every industry and institution that shapes the culture of our societies and distributes learning resources that support the personal and professional growth of our members.
